PROCLAMATION

The health of the child is of vital importance both to the Nation and the State. In consequence, May Day, by official proclamation of the President and the Governors of the States, has been designated to initiate Child Health projects for the ensuing year.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Leslie Jensen, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 1, 1937, as CHILD HEALTH DAY for South Dakota, and urge that special thought and consideration be given in order that full cooperation may be accorded to all national and state public health authorities in their work for healthier and happier surroundings for our children.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this 17th day of March, 1937.

Leslie Jensen
Governor
